

ABOUT US

The Lewis County Youth Bureau Advisory Board was established February 5th, 1997. It was created by resolution and adopted by the Lewis County Board of Legislators.

The board is made up of members from government and non-government work sectors, community members, and student representatives from Lewis County School Districts.

The role of the Youth Bureau is to promote meaningful opportunities for youth, enhance community engagement, and strengthen supportive services across the County.

LEWIS COUNTY YOUTH BUREAU

YOUTH LED

Gives young people the voice to be heard and leadership skills to make a positive change in their community!

The mission of the Lewis County Youth Bureau is to support, strengthen, and promote the positive development of youth through programming that provides meaningful and impactful opportunities for growth.

The Youth Bureau offers funding provided by the state (Office of Children and Family Services) and the County to programs/services that enhance the academic, social, emotional, physical, and personal development of youth within our County.
